The girls and Zap Zone Defender that I had a reasonably profitable and relatively low -stress time together. This was our first time alone without Dustin for that long. About an hour after he stepped out the door the gasoline for our gas burner ran out. Our electricity was additionally out, so we had no strategy to cook. Called Dustin and the disaster was averted after Dustin called a friend who got here and stuffed up the tank for us! That night time I decided to plug in our bug zapper. Somehow it was plugged in with out the extra converter we would have liked. I assumed I'd killed the bug zapper! Thankfully the light bulbs had just blown, so I didn't completely fry it. Our pet additionally obtained sick that week after one other puppy on our compound had lately died.

Our puppy sadly died that Saturday-I'll spare you all the small print. "It's okay mommy. The pet is in heaven now and may play with the opposite pet and the opposite dogs in heaven can take care of them." She's a sensible cookie that one. Why does all the things happen when daddy's away! But actually, over all issues went nicely. It was good for me to really feel like I used to be managing and in some circumstances thriving in our new atmosphere with the ladies. It felt good to assist Dustin in his development and let him be confident that issues again at dwelling weren't fully falling apart whereas he was gone! Dustin is back residence now and Zap Zone Defender we're definitely glad! This final week has been a low stress, laid back week with lots of family time. Thanks for all your continued prayers and support! For anyone that would like to obtain a quarterly e-mail updates on what we're doing right here in Uganda and the projects that Dustin is engaged on, please subscribe to our newsletter here.
